

ATG UK NAMED 'BEST TMC' AT 1st ANNUAL EUROPEAN MISSION AWARDS

Awards recognize, reward and celebrate excellence in the European Business Travel sector

Rome, Italy /16 October 2022 – Although the last two years were challenging for the business travel industry, recovery was evident at the first annual European Mission Awards (EMAs), which recognize and celebrate excellence in every aspect of the European business travel industry.

The EMAs are administrated by Newsteca, Italy's most authoritative publishing house, which has produced and distributed the specialist business travel magazine, Mission, for over twenty years. The winners of the EMA awards were unveiled Monday evening during a gala in Rome at the exclusive St. Regis Rome hotel.

ACE Travel Management, the sole franchise of ATG Travel Worldwide in the United Kingdom, was named Best Travel Management Company by the EMA.

"To be recognized by our industry peers for our excellence at this prestigious awards ceremony is a real honor," said Sarah Wilson, CEO of ATG UK. "It serves as a testament to our commitment, as a company, to providing the best possible service to our clients."

A total of 22 EMA Awards were presented to travel managers and companies that have stood out for their innovation and high-quality services provided to business travelers. The awards cover the whole of Europe and the criterion was geographical.

The EMA Awards jury consisted of expert international travel managers from leading European companies, coordinated and supported by the Newsteca editorial staff. The jury based its selections on a wide range of factors including the added value that the competing companies offer to the business travel sector, the innovation of the products and services offered, and the performance of the nominated companies.
